MEDICINAL

"Those we Leave Behind."

Men are careless about their lives for their own sakes, but a kind and tender man should think of others; he should think if he should die of those he leaves behind to grieve and sorrow and struggle on without him. For this reason alone, if for no other, every man should regard his health as a precious treasure not to be thrown away or spent and scattered in vain.

If any man's health is weakened or wasted, or running down, he should take the right means to build himself up strong and well, so that he can both live and care for those he loves. He should investigate the virtues of that great remedy, the "Golden Medical Discovery," originated by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. It is a remedy that makes a man thoroughly well by giving power and capacity to the digestive and assimilating organs. It makes healthy invigorating blood out of the food he eats. It gives him strength and energy to put into his daily task. It builds up hard muscular flesh and nerve fiber, revitalizes the tissues of the throat and lungs, heals inflammation, purges the blood of bilious poisons and makes a man, strong, vigorous and happy.

My husband had been sick a long time," writes Mrs. J. W. Britton, of Clinton, Tenn. Co., "the doctor said, 'had doctor with home physicians and even went to Chicago and consulted a doctor there but without receiving any help. He went to the hospital and was operated on and after three months came home to die (as the doctors here thought), but after awhile, he commenced to take your great remedy, the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now, thanks to your most welcome medicine, he can eat anything he wants and is again strong and well."

No remedy relieves constipation so quickly and effectively as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They never gripe.

Ask your druggist for a generous 10-CENT TRIAL SIZE of Ely's Cream Balm. Contains no cocaine, mercury or any other injurious drug. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Relieves inflammation. Heals and protects the membrane. Restores the secret of taste and smell. Full size 50c. Trial size 10c. at Druggists or by mail.

DARING POLITICAL PLOT.

A dispatch from Helena, Mont., says: According to his friends and the reports received, Hon. W. A. Clark, of Butte, is the victim of one of the most daring political jobs ever concocted in the history of a senatorial contest. As was noted in the dispatches yesterday, rumors of bribery in regard to the Clark and Daly contest for election to the United States Senate became so rife that yesterday a committee of three Senators and three members of the House was appointed to investigate these charges.

This committee began work last night and upon the assembling of the legislature in joint session yesterday morning, before balloting for Senator Whitely, one of the most sensational reports ever recorded. Senator Whitely, of Flathead county, was the principal witness before the committee. His testimony was in substance that he had been approached by Clark's managers, who paid him $30,000 cash to purchase certain votes.

The money was placed in a sealed packet. He also stated that one of Clark's supporters threatened to kill anyone who "squealed." Yesterday morning the money was exhibited on the speaker's desk, and consisted of thirty $1,000 bills. On motion of the chairman of the committee the money was paid to the State treasurer, and in any event the State is $30,000 ahead.

Whitely two years ago made the famous minority capital building investigation report and published it in a newspaper over his signature, disclosing alleged bribery. He was sued for libel by one of the commissioners, but was able to uphold his report before a jury and a new commission was appointed.

This fact gave Whitely's evidence great prestige. It has since developed, however, that he had just finished a large contract for Marcus Daly, in Butte, and the Clark men claim that Daly and W. C. Conrad, the Great Falls banker, also a candidate for Senator, each furnished half of the money to defeat Clark in this way, he having had an undisputed lead in the contest.

At any rate the effect was the desired one, and Clark made a miserable showing in the vote yesterday afternoon, after the disclosures. Daly's candidate was not even nominated in either branch, nor did he receive a third vote, the Daly strength being thrown to Conrad. Clark and Daly have been bitter enemies for some years and the fight between them for control of the Montana democracy has known no bounds.

The articles appearing in the Butte Miner and Anaconda Standard, the respective Clark and Daly organs, have contained from day to day the most sensational charges of bribery and corruption ever known in the west, and Daly has carried matters so far as to run a special newspaper train to Helena daily that he might present his views first to the legislature.

The fight between them is now one to the death and end cannot be forecasted reliably further than that neither Clark nor Daly's candidate can be elected. Former Governor Toole, who is thought well of, is the strongest candidate outside the two combats. The two houses took the first vote for Senator yesterday. Vote in the senate: W. G. Conrad, 7; W. A. Clark, 1; J. H. Toole, 5; J. M. Fox, 2; Marshall (rep.), 5. Vote in the House: Clark, 3; Conrad, 29; Toole, 20; Hartman, 4; G. A. Hoffman, 1; H. T. Frank, 2; Lee Mantle, 1; Marshall, 10.

THE BEST MAN.

Under the title "When a Maid's Married," Frederick Boyd Stevenson in the January Woman's Home Companion, traces the origin of some of our marriage customs back to the days of primitive man.

While we smile at the wife-selecting propensity of the savage or half-savage nations, we cherish as our dearest form a custom that had its direct origin in this very same practice. The "best man," who plays so important a part in regulated marriages that nowadays have any pretense at all to the fashionable, once upon a time in Sweden occupied a position that was useful as well as ornamental. In the days the Sweden groom found it desirable, in fact, to have several "best men" to defend him from the assaults of rivals and prevent them from carrying away his bride. The Scandinavian warrior of ancient times was far too lofty in his ideas to condescend to plead for a maiden's hand. So he patiently waited until some other man who was more gallant had obtained the fair one's consent. Then when all the details had been nicely arranged the proud warrior, with a body of well-trained retainers, dashed down on the wedding party, and if strong enough, carried away the bride. The "best man" (and it was very essential that they should be the best men in those days), therefore, became necessary fixtures to the marriage ceremony, and they were so well esteemed that their popularity became so permanent that when the reason for their existence was removed they were still retained. Hence, the custom is preserved in the "best man" of to-day.

A NEGRO LEGISLATOR.

The most interesting occurrence in the North Carolina Legislature Monday was the speech of Isaac H. Smith, a negro member and banker from Craven, who risked to a question of personal privilege, he denounced the republican members for expelling him from their caucus. He said the republicans had during the campaign been declaring that the democrats would disfranchise the negroes, and yet here, before the democrats had acted, the republicans had stepped in and disfranchised him. Smith said he was the first man in the United States to propose McKinley for President, and that he had given more money to the republican party in the late campaign. He said Governor Russell absolutely owed his election to the negroes and yet he had appointed only white men to office; yet the negroes are charged with all Russell's wrongdoings. "God bless your souls, my dear white friends," said Smith, "don't charge us with what Russell has done."

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Sprague, of 1125 Howard st., Puddledine, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at E. L. Allen's and E. S. Leadbeater & Son's Drug Stores; every bottle guaranteed.

La Grippe successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. J. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Merit, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being laid a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to be in bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.' For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King Street."

Mr. S. A. Fecker, Editor of the Mississippi (Fla.) Hustler, with his wife and children suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after-effects. New or full. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.

IN ALL STAGES of Nasal Catarrh there should be cleanliness. As experience proves Ely's Cream Balm is a cleaner, softer and healer of the disease's main cure. It is not drying, irritating, and does not produce sneezing. To test it a trial size is mailed for 10 cents or the large for 50 cents by Ely Brothers, 50 Warren Street, New York. Druggists keep it. Upon being placed into the nostrils it spreads over the membrane and relief is immediate. It is an agreeable cure.

Food does more harm than good when not digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It prevents wasting diseases and cures stomach troubles. It cures indigestion, sour stomach and belching, and allows a vigorous enjoyment of life. It acts instantly. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.
